In terms of the Standards Act 8 of 2008, the copyright in all South African National Standards or any other publications published by the SABS Standards Division, vests in the SABS. Any use of South African National Standards is limited to use specifically prescribed by the SABS. In the case of a South African National Standard based on an international standard, ownership of the copyright vests in the organization from which the SABS adopted the standard, whether it be under licence or membership agreement. The SABS is obliged to protect such copyright and is authorized to make the relevant international organization aware of any misuse thereof. Unless exemption has been granted, no extract or full text of any South African National Standard may be copied, reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means without prior written permission from the SABS Standards Division. This does not preclude the free use, in the course of implementing the standard, of necessary details such as symbols, and size, type or grade designations. If these details are to be used for any purpose other than implementation, prior written permission must be obtained.

SABS – Standards Division

The objective of the SABS Standards Division is to develop, promote and maintain South African National Standards. This objective is incorporated in the Standards Act, 2008 (Act No. 8 of 2008).

The SABS continuously strives to improve the quality of its products and services and would therefore be grateful if anyone finding an inaccuracy or ambiguity while using this standard would inform the secretary of the technical committee responsible, the identity of which can be found in the foreword.

Table of changes

Change No.	Date	Scope
ECE amdt 1	2001	Amended to replace footnote 4 to 5.4.1, which gives the distinguishing numbers of countries that have granted approval, and to add new requirements for transitional provisions.
Nat. amdt 1	2006	Amended to change the designation from SABS to SANS, with no technical changes, and to add information to the national foreword that relates to the compulsory application of the standard.

National foreword

This South African standard was prepared by National Committee SABS/TC 022/SC 08, Construction of motor vehicles — Lighting and optics for traffic and transport, in accordance with procedures of the South African Bureau of Standards, in compliance with annex 3 of the WTO/TBT agreement.

This SANS edition is technically identical to SABS ECE R82:1989 and ECE amendment 1, with the addition of national amendment 1.

This document is referenced in the National Regulator for Compulsory Specifications Act, 2008 (Act No. 2008).

For the compulsory application of this standard, the stringency level, the date of entry into force and any additional requirements, if needed, are published in the applicable compulsory specification in the Government Gazette. Nat. amdt 1

Compliance with this document cannot confer immunity from legal obligations.
