In terms of the Standards Act 8 of 2008, the copyright in all South African National Standards or any other publications published by the SABS Standards Division, vests in the SABS. Any use of South African National Standards is limited to use specifically prescribed by the SABS. In the case of a South African National Standard based on an international standard, ownership of the copyright vests in the organization from which the SABS adopted the standard, whether it be under licence or membership agreement. The SABS is obliged to protect such copyright and is authorized to make the relevant international organization aware of any misuse thereof. Unless exemption has been granted, no extract or full text of any South African National Standard may be copied, reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means without prior written permission from the SABS Standards Division. This does not preclude the free use, in the course of implementing the standard, of necessary details such as symbols, and size, type or grade designations. If these details are to be used for any purpose other than implementation, prior written permission must be obtained.

SABS – Standards Division

The objective of the SABS Standards Division is to develop, promote and maintain South African National Standards. This objective is incorporated in the Standards Act, 2008 (Act No. 8 of 2008).

The SABS continuously strives to improve the quality of its products and services and would therefore be grateful if anyone finding an inaccuracy or ambiguity while using this standard would inform the secretary of the technical committee responsible, the identity of which can be found in the foreword.

Foreword

This South African standard was prepared by National Committee SABS/TC 1028, Pesticides, in accordance with procedures of the SABS, in compliance with annex 3 of the WTO/TBT agreement.

This document was published in February 2011.

This document supersedes SABS 0133:1977 (first edition).

This document is referenced in the National Health Act, 2003 (Act No. 61 of 2003).

A reference is made in 3.6 to medicine as defined in "the relevant national legislation". In South Africa this means the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act, 1965 (Act No. 101 of 1965).

A reference is made in 4(a) and 5.1.1 to the registration of the PCO and of pesticide formulations in accordance with "the national regulations and statutory requirements" (respectively). In South Africa this means the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Act, 1947 (Act No. 36 of 1947).

A reference is made in 9.2.1 to the compliance of food storage areas with "the national regulations and statutory requirements for buildings and food premises". In South Africa this means the National Building Regulations and Building Standards Act, 1977 (Act No. 103 of 1977).

A reference is made in 9.2.2.2 to the compliance of the application of pesticides with "the national regulations and statutory requirements for maximum residue limits of pesticides in foodstuffs". In South Africa this means the Foodstuffs, Cosmetics and Disinfectants Act, 1972 (Act No. 54 of 1972).

A reference is made in 10.4.1.1 to the adherence to "the relevant national legislation" with regard to health and safety. In South Africa this means the Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1993 (Act No. 85 of 1993).

A reference is made in 10.4.3.2 and 10.4.3.3 to record keeping as stipulated in, and the regional representative of, "the relevant national legislation for dealing with labour issues" (respectively). In South Africa this means the Occupational Health and Safety Act, 1993 (Act No. 85 of 1993), and the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, 1997 (Act No. 75 of 1997).

A reference is made in note 2 of 11.1 to marking and labelling requirements of pesticides in accordance with "the relevant national legislation". In South Africa this means the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Act, 1947 (Act No. 36 of 1947).

Annex A forms an integral part of this standard. Annexes B and C are for information only.

Compliance with this document cannot confer immunity from legal obligations.
